

Center for Advanced Technology/ Life Science Enterprise

Reporting period: July 1, 20xx-June 30, 20xx

CAT PROJECT FINAL REPORT

PI name(s)
Project title
Industry partner company name
Contact person
Title
Phone
Email address
Brief (150 word) summary of the project in layman's terms (no proprietary information)
New significant accomplishments* , delays, or challenges including resolution thereof, if applicable.
New invention disclosures filed, new license agreements , or patents awarded (For patents: include inventor, co-inventor, patent number, and a one sentence description of its commercial potential)
Grants (federal and not-for-profit) received as a result of the CAT project  For Description: Please include a two-sentence summary of each grant project and its potential commercial relevance.
Any successful K-16 interaction designed to foster student interest in scientific or technical careers or provide workforce training (include numbers affected)
Names of personnel supported by CAT project or who worked on it (include title)
CAT supported students/research assistants who are now employed within New York State (include place of employment)

*Significant accomplishments may include, but need not be limited to, specific milestones reached, significant discoveries, publications, or a member of the research team receiving recognition.

Center for Life Science Enterprise

Reporting period: July 1, 2015-June 30, 2016

PLEASE APPEND YOUR 3-PAGE (maximum) FINAL REPORT ON THE FOLLOWING PAGES

The report should:

- Address the fulfillment of your specific aims, or indicate why there were difficulties
- Summarize the significance and impact of the project
- Append a list of publications and/or awards resulting from the CAT project and
- List presentations given at national or international meetings to disseminate findings

SEND COMPLETED REPORT TO:

Marla Coppolino

mlc247@cornell.edu

Questions? Contact Marla Coppolino by the above email or by phone: (607) 254-6541.